Friday 25th February 2022

God's Word is a lamp to guide our feet and a light for our path.

Inspired by Psalm 119:105

Welcome back! We hope you all had a lovely half term. There are lots of exciting things happening this term and we look forward to sharing all the activities and theme days with you!

World Book Day

A reminder that next Friday is World Book Day here at Bulphan and children are invited to dress up as their favourite book character. Don't forget about our reading competition to take a photo of your child reading in the strangest/funniest place! All entries must be emailed to admin.bulphan@dcvst.org by Thursday 3rd March. There will a winner and runner up in every class. We can't wait to have a day celebrating reading and books!

Red Nose Day

Red noses will be on sale from Monday 24th February. They are £1.50 each. They will be sold during school. Please send your child in with cash if they wish to purchase one.

Nut free school

Another reminder that we are a nut free school. For those of you without allergies, you may not routinely check packaging for ingredients. However, we have a number of children and staff in school who have severe nut allergies that can result in anaphylactic shock. We therefore ask that you please check foods you are sending your child to school with do not contain nuts. This includes but it is not limited to: pesto, Nutella, some chocolate biscuits, bakewell tarts and battenberg cake. If your child brings in food that contains nuts, they will be told not to eat it and you will be contacted to discuss.

Have a lovely weekend!
