7th February 2022

Dear Parents/Carers,

The beginning of March sees the return of World Book Day and at Bulphan we will be celebrating our love of books and reading.

I would like to invite children to dress up as their favourite book character on Friday 4th March. They could also bring the book their character is from to school too so they can explain to other children and recommend the book to them as well. There is no need to buy anything new for this, see what costume you could create from clothes you already own or items around your house.

To celebrate reading further and see where you read at home, we are going to be running a competition to see who can read in the strangest/ funniest place! Get thinking! Where would be a funny or strange place to read a book? All entries must be emailed to admin.bulphan@dcvst.org by Thursday 3rd March. There will be a Winner and Runner Up in every class. These will be announced in star worship on Friday 4th March.

We can't wait to celebrate World Book Day!

Yours sincerely,
