

Year Three Recommended Book List

At Bulphan we aim to create a love of reading in all children. Please find below a list of books we recommend you share with your children throughout year three. Each list consists of a range of titles to cover all abilities. Most children should be able to access these independently excluding the challenge books, however any book can be read with an adult.

Title	Author	I've read this book
Jelly Boots, Smelly Boots – a collection of silly rhymes and thought-provoking poems.	Michael Rosen
Alfie all Alone – how will Alfie cope when a new baby joins the family?	Holly Webb
Oliver and the Seawigs – Oliver is off on an adventure, but sea monkeys and the evil Stacey de Lacey are making things tricky!	Philip Reeve
The Boy in the Bubble – a mysterious boy from another planet chooses an unusual girl as his guide on Earth.	Zetta Elliott
The BFG – join Sophie and the kindest giant around, as they set out to stop the gruesome giants.	Roald Dahl
King Kong - The classic tale of the giant ape who falls in love with the beautiful Ann Darrow but finds himself locked up and held in captivity. When he escapes, chaos ensues in New York.	Anthony Browne
The Diary of a Killer Cat – the hilarious antics of Tuffy and his family, as told by the killer cat himself.	Anne Fine
The Accidental Prime Minister – a hilarious story of one boy's meteoric rise to power!	Tom McLaughlin
An Alien in the Jam Factory - Scooter's cerebral palsy doesn't affect his hyper creative brain, see what inventions he can create!	Chrissie Sains
Accidental Trouble Magnet – follow the daily tribulations of a young boy as he deals with his family moving house and starting a new school	Zanib Mian and Nasaya Mafaridik
This Bee is not Afraid of Me - This anthology of more than 40 poems suitable for KS2 children explores a myriad of different insects and how and where they live.	Edited by Fran Long and Isabel Galleymore

More recommended books can be found on the Book trust website www.booktrust.org.uk