Dear Parents/Carers,

To celebrate World Book Day, I would like to invite children to dress up as their favourite book character on Friday 8th March. They could also bring the book their character is from to school too, so they can explain to other children and recommend the book to them as well. There is no need to buy anything new for this, see what costume you could create from clothes you already own or items around your house. We look forward to seeing who the children choose to be!

During the day at school there will be lots of lovely activities happening throughout the day including a read around with staff.

To celebrate reading further and see where your child(ren) read at home, we are going to be running a competition to see who can read in the strangest/ funniest place! Get thinking! Where would be a funny or strange place to read a book? All entries must be emailed to admin.bulphan@dcvst.org by Thursday 7th March please.

We will also be running another competition for all of the artists within our school. We are asking the children to draw a picture of their favourite book character.

There will be a winner and runner up in each year group for both competitions. These will be announced in Star Worship on Friday 8th March.

We can't wait to celebrate World Book Day!

Kind Regards,
